FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MURDER SUSPECT ARRESTED

Decatur, GA – DeKalb County Sheriff's Office Fugitive Squad Investigators arrested murder suspect Curtis Lamar Broughton Tuesday, September 2, 2008. Broughton, 23, allegedly shot Decatur resident Gregory Lucas, 25, multiple times with a handgun on July 26, 2008, after leaving a party at 780 Beresford Circle in Stone Mountain. Authorities found Lucas lying in the back of the breezeway at that location. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Fugitive Squad investigators apprehended Broughton without incident at his residence, 4741 Garden Hills Drive. He is being held without bond in the DeKalb County Jail.
