FUGITIVE SQUAD HUNT IS ON FOR EX-DEPUTY CHARGED WITH DOUBLE MURDER

The DeKalb County Sheriff's Office Fugitive Unit is attempting to locate Derrick Yancey, a black male, weighing 200 lbs., 5'7" inches tall, short hair, and goatee. The former sheriff's deputy was arrested in August 2008 for the murder of his wife and a male worker at his home in Stone Mountain. Yancey violated conditions of his pretrial release while out on bond awaiting trial. He was last seen at his family's residence in Jonesboro, Georgia, late Friday evening.

The DeKalb County Sheriff's Office is requesting the public's assistance in providing information that may lead to Derrick Yancey's arrest. One should assume that Yancey is desperate, armed, and dangerous. Anyone that knowingly harbors or assists this fugitive will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. If you have information on the fleeing subject, contact the DeKalb County Sheriff's Fugitive Squad at 404-298-8200. (Derrick Yancey is pictured below.)
